Gala Under the Stars

American Stage's Gala Under the Stars is held annually on the opening night of our American Stage in the Park production in Demens Landing on the St. Petersburg waterfront. This extraordinary evening supports the artistic and educational programming at American Stage. As the sun sets, over 500 guests enjoy libations while perusing the silent auction and opportunity drawing items. A seated gourmet dinner is served under the stars by one of St. Petersburg's finest restaurants, Parkshore Grill, and then the live auction takes center stage. After the excitement of the live auction and dessert, our guests settle back into their seats and experience the exciting performance.

American Stage in the Park

Each spring, American Stage transforms St. Petersburg's historic Demens Landing Park for a full scale musical production. American Stage in the Park, formerly known as Shakespeare in the Park, is Tampa Bay area's largest outdoor theatrical production. The tradition of bringing picnics to share under the stars before the performance creates a festive atmosphere for all ages. This area tradition continues in 2019 with the production of MAMMA MIA!, the smash hit feel-good musical. American Stage in the Park has reached nearly half a million people and has become a Tampa Bay area tradition for over thirty years.
