

2020/2021 SEASON REIMAGINE

“Our 2020-2021 Season: REIMAGINE embraces this time of transition and change in our world and within our art form,” said CEO/Producing Artistic Director Stephanie Gularte, “It was essential that we craft a season that allows us to remain connected to our community at a time when we all deeply need the meaningful human connection that powerful storytelling can provide, while at the same time preparing for ongoing flexibility in an evolving public health landscape.”

AMERICAN STAGE 2020-2021 SEASON REIMAGINE

20-21 Season Selections: More Powerful Stories Than Ever Before.

DIGITAL THEATRE SERIES

Three plays in three months, created for digital theatre accessible to anyone, anywhere.

October/November 2020

LETTERS TO KAMALA

An American Stage commissioned work by Rachel Lynett

"How do you mend a country with a broken heart?" Charlotta Bass, the first Black woman candidate for vice president, Charlene Mitchell, the first Black woman to run for president and Patsy Matsu Takemoto Mink, the first woman of color to be elected to the House of Representatives, first Asian-American woman to run in Congress and the first Asian-American to run for president, deliver wisdom, perspective and wry humor as they address Kamala Harris, and the cultural significance and psychological weight of her Vice-Presidential nomination.

November 2020

KATE - THE UNEXAMINED LIFE OF KATHARINE HEPBURN by Rick Foster

Unconventional, independent and formidable, Katharine Hepburn was raised by her parents to speak out, sharpen her mind and engage the world fully. In this digital theatre adaptation, Janis Stevens plays the iconic American actress at the age of 92 on New Year's Eve 1999. As Kate reflects on her life, her loves and her Hollywood memories, she reveals uncharted emotional waters, exposing a side of Ms. Hepburn audiences have never seen.

December 2020

NOSOTROS LA GENTE (WE THE PEOPLE)

An American Stage commissioned work by Jerry Montoya

This is a story of faith, hope and love. On the eve of Pearl Harbor, the Ramirez brothers toil planting date palms in the fertile soil of Indio, California. Benjamin dreams of owning land and prosperity while his brother, Joaquin, dreams of seeing the world far beyond the valley. His young wife, the pregnant Sophie, is heartbroken when he decides to enlist and is lost in the early days of the war. Assuming the responsibility of his brother, Benjamin takes the widow as his bride. This is a story of a family that has tilled the fields of this country and fought its wars. A story of America.

FAMILY SERIES

Our Family Series begins with an accessible digital production, reimagining fairytales and delivering them virtually to families at home and students in classrooms. The series continues with a favorite family holiday classic presented as a 1940's radio play.

October/November 2020

FAIRYTALES REIMAGINED: STORIES FOR A NEW WORLD

Adapted from Grimm's Fairytales by Sadie Lockhart, Patrick A. Jackson and Tiffany Ford

The power has gone out at the family's household. Two siblings and their grandmother must find a way to be brave, despite the never-ending storm outside. They learn that our imaginations make us stronger, innovative, and more resilient. Listen to your inner voice...and listen to your grandmother.

December 2020

IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE: A LIVE RADIO PLAY adapted by Joe Landry

This beloved American holiday classic comes to captivating life as a live 1940's radio broadcast. With the help of an ensemble that brings dozens of characters, and live sound effects, the story of idealistic George Bailey unfolds as he considers a world in which he'd never been born one fateful Christmas Eve.

AMERICAN STAGE 2020-2021 SEASON REIMAGINE

20-21 Season Selections: More Powerful Stories Than Ever Before.

HYBRID THEATRE SERIES

A hybrid production performed with live streaming on our Virtual Stage and an intended return to live onsite performances on our Mainstage.

"When it is safe for us to return to onsite performances, we will be ready." said Gularte, "This season programming allows us to remain nimble as we innovate ways to deliver more powerful stories than ever before."

January 2021

THE PEOPLE DOWNSTAIRS by local playwright Natalie Symons - World Premiere

This production, and all of American Stage's in-person programming were halted on March 13, hours before the opening night of our world premiere Mainstage production. American Stage looks forward to bringing back this production for audiences to celebrate its world premiere and complete run.

In Buffalo, NY, aging funeral home custodian Miles lives with his middle-aged daughter Mabel, who spends her days writing letters to prison inmates. When a court-appointed guardian threatens to take away their home, Miles sets out to set Mabel up with Todd, an inept mortician. It is a father's fierce determination not to accept his daughter's fate that ignites an endearing human comedy about love, loss, loneliness and the healing power of laughter.

February/March 2021

SATCHMO AT THE WALDORF by Terry Teachout

A one-man, three-character play in which the same actor portrays Louis Armstrong, the greatest of all jazz trumpeters; Joe Glaser, his white manager; and Miles Davis, who admired Armstrong's playing but disliked his onstage manner. It takes place in 1971 in a dressing room backstage at the Empire Room of New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, where Armstrong performed in public for the last time four months before his death. Reminiscing into a tape recorder about his life and work, Armstrong seeks to come to terms with his long standing relationship with Glaser, whom he once loved like a father but now believes to have betrayed him.

May/June 2021

SCHOOL GIRLS; OR, THE AFRICAN MEAN GIRLS PLAY by Jocelyn Bioh

At the start of the 1986 school year, Paulina, reigning queen bee of the Aburi Boarding School, has her sights set on winning the Miss Ghana Pageant and ultimately, the Miss Global Universe Pageant. Paulina prides herself on successfully shaming her friends over their weight, hair and status. When American transfer student Erica arrives and begins to threaten Paulina's position atop her hive-minded friends, the power struggle begins. Colorism, classism, body shaming and more play a role in the skirmishes that ensue.

July/August 2021

ROMEO & JULIET IN AMERICA (THE ONE WITH THE HAPPY ENDING)

by William Shakespeare and adapted by American Stage

This bold and modern retelling of Shakespeare's most romantic tragedy imagines how two young lovers, caught in the middle of their feuding families, might meet a different fate. Through party crashing, street fights and clandestine encounters, the plot twists and turns toward a stunning new conclusion where love may just conquer all.
